The EP features 4 new songs:

REPUBLICMEDIA

1. Shadows On The Wall
2. Feeling The Sunlight
3. Rewind Forward
4. Miss Jean

"Rewind Forward was something I said out of the blue - it's just one of those lines like a Hard Days Night. It just came to me. But it doesn't really make sense," Ringo said with a laugh about the title. "I was trying to explain it to myself and the best I can tell you about what it means is: sometimes when you want to go forward you have to go back first."

'Rewind Forward' was written with his engineer and oft co-writer Bruce Sugar. "We've been writing a song now for every EP," said Ringo. The other tracks find Starr collaborating with old and new friends - including longtime All Starr Steve Lukather and his Toto bandmate Joe Williams who wrote the opening track 'Shadows on the Wall'; Paul McCartney, who wrote 'Feeling the Sunlight'; and for the final track, 'Miss Jean', Heartbreaker's Benmont Tench and Mike Campbell who also enlisted Ian Hunter, a former All Starr. In addition, the EP features contributions from Joe Walsh, Steve Dudas, Lance Morrison, as well as Matt Bissonnette, Torrance Klein, Weston Wilson, Kip Lennon, Marky Lennon.

All songs were recorded at Ringo's home studio in Los Angeles (except for 'Feeling the Sunlight' which was largely recorded in the UK).

Ringo and his All Starr band will begin their autumn tour on September 17, 2023 at Toyota Arena in Ontario, CA playing shows in the Southwest, Midwest and Southeast before ending on October 13, 2023 in Thackerville, OK.
